

Is God still committed to us when we turn away from Him for a time? Does He hang in there with us or cut ties? Could there be a grander, more far-reaching purpose God is working out? The apostle Paul explores the promises and mysterious purposes of God in today's text. Much to learn about God's character and our response today. Come, let's listen and learn!

ANNOUNCEMENTS

MEN'S RETREAT

JANUARY 28TH - 29TH

SIGN UP TODAY!

January 30th

MEMBERSHIP MATTERS

Come learn more about our church and what it means to be a member! Lunch provided.

Get Connected!

community GROUPS

Join a group!

Learn more at c3.church/ministries

ABOUT US

WE EXIST TO GLORIFY GOD
BY MAKING DISCIPLES
OF JESUS CHRIST
WHO ARE GROWING
AND MULTIPLYING
IN AUTHENTIC COMMUNITY.

Join a

SERVE TEAM

Need
prayer or assistance?

Contact us at:
seth@c3magnolia.org

GIVING

Month to Date: $4,891

Monthly Budget: $31,500

The sovereign God of _____ is committed to His people, despite their _____. (vv.1-10)

The sovereign God of _____ uses even _____ to bring people to Himself (vv.11-32)

God's gracious promises & mysterious purposes deserve our _____, not our _____.(vv.33-36)

Take Away :

Digging Deeper: 1 Kings 19, Deut. 32:21, Isaiah 59:20-21; 40:13, Job 41:11, Col. 1:15-20

Next week: Romans 12:1-2